MARK ALBRECHT

Mark Albrecht currently hangs his hat in New York City. He attended the prestigious American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York City with a major in Musical Theatre and a focus in Dance. Some of his credits include A Chorus Line, Grease, Oklahoma, 42nd Street, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Hello Dolly, Children of Eden, Fame, and many more. He has performed for The American Tap Dance Foundation's annual "Tap City" at Symphony Space and the New York Foundation for the Fine Arts' "Tap Extravaganza". He has worked and/or shared the stage with choreographers and teachers such as Skip Cunningham, Germaine Salsberg, Shea Sullivan, Dr. Prince Spencer, Chloe Arnold, Ted Levy, Prof. Robert Reed, Bob Scheerer, Rusty Frank, Deborah Mitchell, Ayodele Casel, Dormeshia Sumbry-Edwards, Jason Samuels Smith, and many more. Mark Albrecht has had the opportunity to be on the tap faculty at Broadway Dance Center, teach master classes throughout the US, and choreograph internationally. Mark has also assisted Shea Sullivan at the eminent Pulse Teacher's Workshop, is a judicator for "Groove National Dance Competition", and has had the opportunity to teach Jazz and Tap for the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists convention.

ASHLEY KATHRYN GUILLIAMS

Ashley Kathryn Guilliams started dancing in Nokesville Virginia where she was raised. At the age of fifteen she had the privilege to dance with the Northern Virginia Ballet Company. Ashley then attended Lees McRae College in Banner Elk North Carolina where she majored in performing arts with a dance emphasis on a full scholarship. During college she performed as a featured dancer in productions of Smokey Joe's Cafe and Footloose. After graduating she performed with The Appalachian Performing Arts Company and Leslie Jtrans Ballet Company. Since residing in New York she has had the opportunity to perform with American Entertainment Company, Vee Corporation, Starlight Dance Entertainment Company, and shows such as, Annie Get Your Gun, Little Shop of Horrors, Annie, 42nd Street and Working. She has continued choreographing for privately owned dance studios as well as theme parks such as Tweetsie Railroad and Rye Playland. She also continues to study at Broadway Dance Studio and New Jersey Ballet. Ashley hopes to share her passion by instilling in today's youth the art that was instilled in her. She is excited to pass the knowledge and fundamentals of her craft on to other aspiring dancers and performers as well as the love she has for the arts through movement.
